International Liquid Crystal Society

Is proud to present the Glenn H. Brown Prize

to

Uroš Tkalec

for the outstanding Ph.D. dissertation

Colloidal Interactions and Novel Colloidal Structures in Thin Nematic Layers for the beautiful, insightful, and precise merging, both experimentally and theoretically, of low dimensional topology with defect structures in liquid crystalline colloids

Presented at the 24th International Liquid Crystal Conference
Mainz, Germany

August 19 – August 24, 2012
